The following Address of the Reverend Presbytery of Dumfries to the Queen having been transmitted by Sir James Johnstone, Bart. Representative in Parliament for that Burgh, to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has been by him presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Reverend Presbytery of Dumfries.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumfries, beg Leave to present, in the most respectful Manner, our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty, on the very favourable Reports which are now returned by the Physicians, of the Convalescence of our most gracious Sovereign.

Deeply affected by that heavy Calamity with which it pleased God to visit the Royal Family, and sincerely sympathizing with your Majesty, it was not our Duty, and far less has it been our Inclination, to take any Share in those Political Discussions to which that Calamity hath given Occasion. Uninfluenced by Party Spirit, and bound by our Profession to inculcate Sentiments of Loyalty and Peace, we presume not to detract from the Merits of one Administration, or to celebrate the Praises of another.

We have endeavoured to cherish in our own Breasts, and in those of the People committed to our Charge, a becoming Attachment to all the Branches of the House of Brunswick; and in the fervent Prayers we have been daily offering to Almighty God for the Recovery of our most gracious Sovereign, we were persuaded that we were performing a Duty incumbent in itself, and equally acceptable to your Majesty, to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and to all the Branches of your Illustrious Family.

Animated by the same Spirit of Loyalty and Religion, we beg Leave to express in this Manner to your Majesty those Sentiments of Joy and of Gratitude to Divine Providence which we now feel in the Hopes of the King's Recovery. These Sentiments are but a natural and just Return for the many Blessings we have enjoyed during the Reign of a Monarch, the Happiness of whose People, we are persuaded, hath never been exceeded under any Reign, or by any Nation upon Earth.

That Almighty God may realize our Hopes, by soon restoring our most gracious Sovereign to a State of perfect and confirmed Health; that your Majesty and He may yet see many Days of Comfort in your Family, and of Prosperity in your Kingdom; and that, after it shall please God to receive you both, full of Years and Glory, to an Immortal Crown, His Majesty may be succeeded in his Throne, by a Line of wise and virtuous Descendants to the latest Generations, is, and ever shall be, the Prayer of your Majesty's most devoted and most faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumfries.

James Heron, Moderator.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the ancient Burgh of Inverkeithing to the Queen, having been transmitted by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, Representative in Parliament for the Shire of Edinburgh, to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has been by him presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Gracious Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the ancient Burgh of Inverkeithing.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the said Burgh, sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under the auspicious Government of our beloved Sovereign, the best of Kings, the Father of His People, the Patron of all useful and ornamental Arts, the Promoter of Commerce and National Prosperity of every Kind, under whom, by the Blessing of Heaven, the British Empire continues to flourish with distinguished Lustre, and make an eminent Figure among the Nations, with heart-felt Joy and Satisfaction congratulate your Majesty on the Recovery of the King from His late Indisposition; which happy Event, so earnestly wished for, will diffuse Joy and Pleasure among His Majesty's loyal Subjects, and afford them the agreeable Prospect of the long Continuance of the invaluable Blessings they enjoy under His Majesty's benign Government.

May Heaven, indulgent to the British Isles, behold your Majesty with gracious Smiles, and long preserve your Majesty to bless the King with all domestic Happiness:

Happineſs: May His Health be ſpeedily confirmed and re-eſtabliſhed; and may He long poſſeſs the Britiſh Throne, and reign in the Hearts of a free, a loyal, and a happy People.
